

Moralities of Warfare

The Committed Soldier

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE June 6th – June 7th, 2016

Organized by Angela Kallhoff (Department of Philosophy, University of Vienna) and Thomas Schulte-Umberg (Department of Historical Theology, University of Vienna)

Monday, June 6th

Alte Kapelle, Campus Altes AKH

- 09.15 Welcome Address
- 09.30 – 10.30 Helen Frowe (Stockholm):
Partiality in War
- 10.30 – 11.30 Sabine A. Haring (Graz):
"Comradeship" in the Habsburg Army
during World War I.
The Sociology of Emotions Perspective
- 11.45 – 12.45 Michael Snape (Durham):
Faith and Killing in the US Army
in the Second World War:
Some Perspectives from Europe
- 14.30 – 15.30 Gregory M. Reichberg (Oslo):
Can Fallen Soldiers Attain the Status of Martyrs?
Aquinas's Response
- 15.30 – 16.30 Angela Kallhoff (Vienna):
Committed Killing in War: Constraints on Exculpation in Just War Theory

Tuesday, June 7th

Alte Kapelle, Campus Altes AKH

- 09.30 – 10.30 Uta Heil (Vienna):
Between Just War Theory and Holy Soldiers.
Soldiers and Warfare in Christian Narratives
- 10.30 – 11.30 Thomas Schulte-Umberg (Vienna):
"Pro Deo et Patria mori".
Catholicism, Sacrifice and Solidarity in World War I
- 12.00 – 13.00 Andrea Hofmann (Mainz):
"Kämpfet recht!"
Reconstructions of an "ethic for soldiers"
during World War I

Participation is free of charge.